

Multicultural Pentacrest Food Fest

Multicultural Pentacrest Food Fest

What is this?

A student-run event providing a positive social environment and a taste of foods from various cultures. With support from University of Iowa dining, local establishments and student organizations, there will be an assortment of great food to embrace flavors from around the world. Taking Place outdoors at the Pentacrest, the fest includes yard games, arts and music. There is a $10 fee for adults, (freshmen, children and seniors eat free!) all proceeds will go to university multicultural clubs.
