About CLIMB Theatre:

Currently in its 43rd Season, CLIMB Theatre's mission is to create and perform plays, classes, and other creative works that inspire and propel people—especially young people—toward actions that benefit themselves, each other, and the community.

CLIMB's theatre artists write, produce, and perform plays and classes on topics like bullying prevention, resilience, fiscal responsibility, acceptance of differences, and more.

We are a solely touring theatre company so all of our programming happens at schools, camps, offices, retirement homes, and incarceration facilities.

Each season, CLIMB hires a company of 6-12 actors on a full time paid 6-12 month contract to perform in and deliver classes to over 150,000 students a year.
